

A high-angle, top-down photograph of a muscular Black man using a piece of gym equipment. He is shirtless, wearing grey shorts and white sneakers, and is seated on an orange cushioned machine. He is holding the handles of the machine, which are also orange and black. The machine has a silver frame and a black control panel with yellow buttons. A label on the machine reads "Pec Deck". The background is a plain white floor.

Strength SERIES

The all new Strength Series from SportsArt Fitness has literally reinvented an entire category. Its breakthrough blend of form and function will redefine what you should expect in premium strength products.

Since 1981, SportsArt Fitness has led the fitness industry with innovative design, creative engineering solutions, and world class manufacturing. The result is unique products with enhanced features that benefit all users.

SportsArt_{FITNESS}

The Strength Series from SportsArt Fitness features elegant European-inspired design that will enhance the atmosphere of any facility. From the sleek oval tubing to the contoured upholstery, these machines exude refinement.

Users, even novices, will find these products very inviting. Intuitive, color coded adjustments inspire confidence while the smooth, silent operation contributes to a positive overall experience for each and every user.

Other thoughtful features include fully shrouded weight stacks, tethered magnetic selector pins, gas assisted seat adjustments, and integrated incremental weights.

The Strength Series from SportsArt Fitness will change the way you think about premium selectorized equipment.

Oval tubing enhances aesthetics while providing greater structural integrity than rectangular tubing
